Meeting With Romina Notes:

- Each movie is a separate page, would you like each page to also have a theme? It could be dark but have colors more related to the movie
- Discussion on whether or not there should be a nav bar, I think yes
- Not a lot of questions, could google most the info, just copy down the links
- It was a short meeting, there were not a lot of questions at all, she seemed like she could get some high fyi mock ups done with the information given here.
